Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Parts C & D:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d) (2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance,

(ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c) (3) (B) (iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
(iv) subjects a person to undue burden

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

ATTACHMENT A

Pursuant to Rule 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, defendant GameLogic Inc. requests that Locke Liddel & Sapp, LLP identify, produce and permit the inspection and copying of the documents and things listed below.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

Unless otherwise indicated the following definitions shall apply to each of the Requests for Production below:

- A. The term “person” refers to a natural person, corporation, or other business, legal or governmental entity or association.
- B. The term “third party” shall refer to all persons who are not parties to this action, as well as their officers, directors, employees, agents and attorneys.
- C. The term “document” shall have the meaning and scope ascribed to it under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34, and includes anything coming within the definition of “writings” and “recordings” in Federal Rule of Evidence 1001, including but not limited to electronically stored files or data. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.
- D. The term “patents-in-suit” as used herein refers to United States Patent No. 5,569,082 (“the ‘082 patent”) and the U.S. patent application(s) upon which the ‘082 patent is based; and United States Patent No. 5,709,603 (“the ‘603 patent”) and the U.S. patent application(s) upon which the ‘603 patent is based.
- E. The term “prior art” shall be construed in accordance with the meaning given that term in Title 35, United States Code, and interpretations thereof provided by the federal judiciary.
- F. The term “communication” refers to all forms of information exchanges, whether written, oral, telephonic, facsimile, electronic, or by any other mode of transmission.

G. The term “related to” shall mean, without limitation, concerning, referring, constituting, containing, embodying, identifying, stating, or being in any other way relevant to the particular subject matter identified.

H. “Any” or “each” shall be understood to include and encompass “all.” “Or” shall be understood to include and encompass “and”; “and” shall be understood to include and encompass “or.” The plural of any word shall be construed as the singular, and vice versa, as necessary, in order to bring within the scope of these Requests for Production any information, documents, or things that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope.

I. The term “Locke Liddell & Sapp” shall mean Locke Liddell & Sapp LLP, and its predecessors, successors, assigns, as well as any partner, associate, employee or agent thereof.

J. Documents shall be produced either as kept in the usual course of business or shall be organized and labeled to correspond with the number of each request to which a produced document is responsive. If you choose to produce documents as they are as kept in the usual course of business, the documents are to be produced in the boxes, file folders, bindings, and other containers in which the documents are found. The titles, labels, and other descriptions on the boxes, file folders, bindings, and other containers are to be left intact.

K. If you claim any form of privilege as a ground for not producing or for redacting any document, provide the following information for each document withheld or redacted: (1) the document’s preparation date and the date appearing on the document; (2) the name, present and last known home and business addresses, the telephone numbers, the title (and position), and the occupation of those individuals who prepared, produced, and reproduced, and who were the recipients of said document; (3) the number of pages withheld; and (4) a description sufficient to identify the document without revealing the information for which the privilege is claimed, including the general subject matter and character of the document (e.g., letter, memorandum, notes).

L. If only a portion of a responsive document is privileged or otherwise protected against disclosure, you must produce the responsive non-privileged portion of the document in redacted form, provided that the redacted material is identified and the basis for the claim of privilege stated as provided in instruction K above.

M. Each requested document is to be produced in its entirety without deletion and excision (except as qualified by instructions K and L above), regardless of whether you consider the entire document to be relevant or responsive to these Subpoena Requests for Production.

N. For those produced documents that are not in the English language, please produce English translations thereof.

O. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 26(e), your responses to the following Requests for Production are to be promptly supplemented to include any subsequently acquired documents and information.
